What We Are Working On:

This month, we will be continuing to work on our 1.2 Conflict Resolution and Social Problem-Solving Skills by beginning to express our feelings and ways to regulate our emotions in order to solve conflicts with peers. We will be working on identifying what will happen when we make certain choices. We will also be working on 4.2 Problem Solving by talking about general solutions to different types of problems we might encounter. We will do this by brainstorming solutions and the outcomes while it is happening or during group discussions to be able to transfer the skills for next time.

We will be focussing on self-help skills and persisting in the face of challenges. A great way to help at home is by allowing your child the time and space to attempt to solve their own problems with encouragement and small hints before fully helping them solve it.

Reminders:

As the weather changes please dress your child in layers they can remove or put on themselves. This way they have options for the changing temperature throughout the day. We also need a pair of indoor shoes. The school keeps their indoor shoes and Terry Tan needs a pair also.
